SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The North Korean and Chinese Communist Special Task Force in the Wonsan area has headquarters at Oknyu-bong (? Okpyong-ni 127-18, 39-17) Mill, opposite the Munchon railroad station.
2. The North Korean 176 Division and the Chinese Communist 97 Division¹ were deployed along the Munchon-Wonsan-Anbyon railroad line.
3. The North Korean 12 Division and an unidentified Chinese Communist division moved south to Chongpyong (127-22, 39-48), south of Manhung, from Pungsong-ni (127-13, 39-56) on 27 May.
4. On 26 May three unidentified Chinese Communist Divisions moved to Sinup (126-47, 39-55) from Koksan (126-40, 38-47).
5. Three North Korean divisions which are believed to be subordinate to the North Korean II Corps and three Chinese Communist divisions were concentrated at Koksan on 28 May.²
6. There is a rumor prevalent among North Korean troops that the Chinese Communist troops will retreat north of the 39th Parallel, leaving North Korean troops below that line.
7. Many Chinese Communist officers are being arrested because of the increasing desertions of Chinese Communist troops. On 27 May thirty Chinese Communist officers were being taken north from Hyon-ni (127-48, 38-32) under arrest.
